Volume 1A covers corporate finance: how businesses allocate capital - the capital budgeting decision - and how they obtain capital - the financing decision. Though managers play no independent role in the work of Miller and Modigliani, major contributions in finance since then have shown that managers maximize their own objectives. To understand the firm's decisions, it is therefore necessary to understand the forces that lead managers to maximize the wealth of shareholders.

Here is a sample chapter from Lifespan Investing, which lays out a successful path for creating wealth over your lifetime. Veteran author and trader Clifford Pistoiese deftly explains the need for this approach and the techniques for maximizing wealth at every age, stage of life, and market condition. Presenting an age-based portfolio management plan, Pistoiese shows how to take advantage of capital gains opportunities during bull markets, avoid loss of capital during bear markets, and increase assets and income flow during range-bound markets.
